

Travis Roofing Supply has Joined the SRS Family of Companies

August 23, 2019 | McKinney, TX

SRS Distribution Inc. (“SRS”) announced today that it has acquired Travis Roofing Supply (“Travis” or the “Company”), an independently owned distributor of residential and commercial roofing products & accessories. Terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

Founded in Austin, Texas in 2015, Travis operates a network of 21 branches across the United States, servicing professional contractors, local homebuilders, home improvement contractors, and remodelers. Led by local teams of industry veterans, Travis has grown rapidly over the last few years, with a footprint spanning from Idaho to Florida.

Dan Tinker, President and CEO of SRS Distribution, commented, “We are pleased to welcome the Travis team, which is full of industry veterans, to the SRS family. Representing the largest number of locations acquired in a single transaction for SRS, this acquisition further solidifies our strengths and broadens our capabilities in key markets. Travis has expanded at a tremendous pace over the past few years and shares the same passion for customers and employees that we do. We are thrilled to have the opportunity to contribute the resources and supplier relationships for their team to be able to unleash their full potential in the coming years.”

Dale Lowe, Chairman of Travis, added, “I couldn’t imagine a better outcome for the Travis team than this partnership with SRS. The timing was right for us to align with SRS and leverage the extensive resources they bring to the table. Together the companies will support an enduring commitment to their customers and supplier partners, while continuing to empower the hard-working employees that make it all possible.”
